

Bloodhound Ambassadors

Bloodhound Ambassadors are the official student representatives of SJA. An Ambassador must have the ability to communicate his/her passion for SJA as well as be prepared to share details and comprehensive knowledge of the school's mission, history, facilities and programs. As Ambassadors, students will interact with faculty, staff, donors, alumni and community/business leaders. Ambassadors will provide assistance for campus tours, special events and public speaking events and participate in other support and fundraising activities.

Bloodhound Ambassadors promote SJA pride and showcase the quality and diversity of the student body. Students selected to represent SJA in this capacity will gain exposure to unique leadership, networking, and professional development opportunities.

About Saint Joseph Academy Advancement

The SJA Office of Advancement's primary role is to strengthen the campus's ability to make meaningful connections with each and every member of the SJA community; connecting students, alumni, parents and friends, corporations and foundations, faculty and staff.
